Dear Mr. Anglin:

Thank you for your generous support of Harlem RBI's comprehensive programs for youth in East Harlem.

As you know, Harlem RBI's mission is to use baseball and softball and the power of teams to provide inner-city youth with opportunities to play, to learn and to grow, inspiring them to recognize their potential and realize their dreams. Harlem RBI serves more than 700 East Harlem youth, ages 6-21, with safe, supportive and engaging programs that help develop vital life skills needed to break the cycle of poverty.

Due to the tremendous support received from institutions such as The Prince Henry Foundation, Harlem RBI was able to achieve the following successes in 2008:

- 85% (17 of 20) of Harlem RBI's seniors were accepted to college. These acceptances include offers of admission from: Tufts University, Syracuse University, Dickinson College, Pennsylvania State University, Villanova University, University of Vermont, St. John's University, Temple University, Seton Hall University, Hampton University, Marist College and Pace University.
- Harlem RBI's senior class averaged 6.1 years in Harlem RBI programs, proving that Harlem RBI programs attract and retain youth participation over many years, and not simply on a seasonal or annual basis;
- Over 99% of Harlem RBI youth avoided teen parenthood for the fourth consecutive year.

Furthermore, Harlem RBI's programs have been recognized nationally and locally by leading youth-development practitioners and researchers. In 2008, Harlem RBI was awarded with "The New York Times Company Nonprofit Excellence Award" for Excellent Communications and in 2007, Harlem RBI received Bank of America's "Neighborhood Excellence Award" recognizing organizations making a significant impact in their community.

Once again, thank you for your generosity. The support of The Prince Henry Foundation enables Harlem RBI to continue our work with East Harlem youth and it is my great hope that this partnership continues far into the future.

If you have any additional questions about Harlem RBI, please do not hesitate to contact me at 212.722.1608, or via email at rberlin@harlemrbi.org. Otherwise, I look forward to speaking with you soon.
